Council on Postsecondary Education September 21, 2003

Report on Fall 2003 Estimated Enrollment

Fall 2003 enrollments, at all levels, are predicted to continue the substantial increases that began with reform in 1998.

Highlights include:

A record high 226,910 students enrolled at public and independent postsecondary institutions in Kentucky.

This is an increase of 5,728 students or 2.6 percent over 2002 enrollment.

Public institutions alone enrolled 197,615 students.

Enrollment growth since 1998:

Since 1998, total postsecondary education enrollment increased by 42,064 students or 22.8 percent.

Undergraduate enrollment increased 37,452, moving the Council closer to the goal of enrolling 80,000 new students by 2015.

The KCTCS showed the largest increase with 25,532 more students. This is an increase of 56.1 percent since 1998.

Graduate student enrollment growth, on a percentage basis, was significant in both the state-supported and independent institutions. Public institutions increased 16.5 percent, or 2,887 graduate students, across institutions in a variety of academic programs. Independent institutions increased 68.6 percent, or 1,326 graduate students.

Official data will be reported in January. Estimates in prior years have varied from actual enrollments by small amounts. National enrollment data are not yet available for comparison.

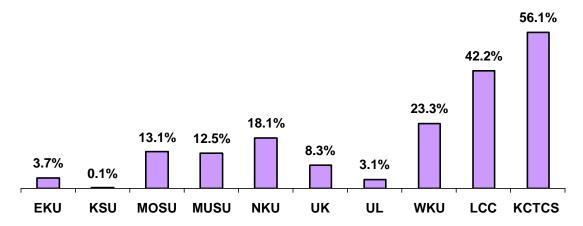

The attached table provides enrollment information, including change statistics, for each public institution.
